WINSTON HOUSE
SCHOOL OF COOKERY

the Great Joy of cooking

Whether you're a complete beginner or looking to add to your existing skills

CAROLYN DENNY

WINSTON HOUSE SCHOOL OF COOKERY

Carolyn is an accomplished cook and has been involved in the food industry throughout her working life, developing a great passion for all things culinary.

She has honed her cookery skills through the Leith School of Food and Wine and the renowned Raymond Blanc Cookery School, Le Manoir aux Quat'Saisons.

Under her guidance, students will be given a hands-on opportunity to develop food preparation and cookery skills in a practical and relaxed environment.

Carolyn's cookery style is in the main inspired by traditional British cuisine with French and Asian influences, using seasonal and local produce whenever possible.

"I want to inspire and help everyone, regardless of ability, to develop the confidence to enjoy themselves in the kitchen"

Enjoy the setting and comfort of Winston House, part of a former grade II listed 16th century abbots' residence located in the historic hamlet of Standish in Gloucestershire, with easy access to all major road links.

Can't Cook will Cook

Your cookery session will take place in the delightful country kitchen at Winston House, with all the very best in kitchen equipment to hand. The kitchen provides a relaxing and comfortable environment to ensure that you enjoy every moment - with plenty of fresh coffee and even the odd glass of wine!

A maximum of 3 students each session allows for plenty of individual tuition to develop kitchen and cookery skills, rather than just observing demonstrations. Courses are from 3-6 hours or bespoke requirements if desired. You may choose to savour the fruits of your work there and then or take away to enjoy later, along with a Winston House Certificate of your achievement.
